

INTERNATIONAL

THE NEWS

December 4, 2021

FBR, PIDE sign MoU

ISLAMABAD: The Federal Board of Revenue (FBR) and Pakistan Institute of Development Economics (PIDE) signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) on Friday for provision of evidence-based policy reforms solution, a statement said.

As per the agreement, both institutions would encourage their staff to strengthen cooperation in broad areas of tax policy and reforms.

The two government bodies aims to work together for mutual benefit and develop a collaborative framework to benefit from each others' initiatives and working procedures in addition to supporting collaboration among researchers associated with both organizations.

DG FBR Dr. Nasir Khan and pro-vice-chancellor at PIDE Dr. Durre Nayab signed the agreement on behalf of their respective organization.

They agreed on jointly conducting collaborative research and short-term research activities. The implementation mechanism of these activities would be devised mutually and would be subject to additional protocols, the MoU stated.

Both organizations would be jointly responsible for nominating focal persons for implementing objectives agreed under the MOU in their respective organizations and communicate with each other.

The focal persons of FBR and PIDE will meet regularly to develop a work plan with clear timelines. In addition, FBR will assign research studies/reports and any other assessments to PIDE and the institute would provide detailed methodology along with the level of efforts (LoE). The MOU would be effective for three years from the date of final signature and may be modified or extended by mutual written agreement by both organizations. —APP

THE NATION

December 4, 2021

PIDE, FBR ink MoU

OUR STAFF REPORTER
ISLAMABAD

Pakistan Institute of Development Economics (PIDE) and the Federal Board of Revenue (FBR) on Friday signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) for the provision of evidence-based policy reforms solution.

Dr Durre Nayab, Pro-Vice-Chancellor, PIDE, and Dr Nasir Khan, DG FBR, signed the agreement. The MoU aimed to define the areas for fundamental, academic, and policy-oriented and will work together in the future for their mutual benefit to foster a collaborative framework between PIDE and FBR to benefit from each other's initiatives and working procedures and to support collaboration among the researchers associated with both organizations.

Both the government bodies agreed on jointly conducting collaborative research and short-term research activities. The implementation mechanism of these activities shall be devised mutually and will be subject to additional protocols. Both institutions will encourage their staff to strengthen cooperation in broad areas of tax policy and reforms.

According to the press release issued by the PIDE, it was mentioned in the MoU that to gain maximum benefit in a short period of time and to ensure transparency, both PIDE and FBR will be jointly responsible for nominating focal persons for implementing objectives agreed under the MoU in their respective organizations and communicate with each other. The focal persons of FBR and PIDE will meet regularly to develop a work plan with clear timelines.

T

04 Dec 2021

PIDE, FBR sign MoU to provide evidence-based policy reforms solution

RECORDED REPORT

ISLAMIABAD: Pakistan Institute of Development Economics (PIDE) and the Federal Board of Revenue (FBR), signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) for the provision of evidence-based policy reforms solution.

Dr Dame Nayfeh, pro vice-chancellor on behalf of the PIDE, and Dr Nasir Khan, director general (DG) on behalf of the FBR signed the agreement.

The MoU aimed to define the areas for fundamental, academic, and policy-oriented and will work together in the future for their mutual benefit to foster a collaborative framework between PIDE and the FBR to benefit from each other's initiatives and working procedures and to support collaboration among the researchers associated with both organizations. The two government bodies agreed on jointly conducting collaborative research and short-term research activities.

The implementation mechanism of these activities shall be devised mutually and will be subject to additional protocols. Both institutions will encourage their staff to strengthen cooperation in broad areas of tax policy and reforms.

A press release issued by the PIDE, it was mentioned in the MoU that to gain maximum benefit in a short period of time and to ensure transparency, both the PIDE and the FBR will be jointly responsible for nominating focal persons for implementing objectives agreed under the MoU in their respective organizations and coordination with each other.

The focal persons of the FBR and the PIDE will meet regularly to develop a work plan with clear timelines. In addition, the FBR will assign research studies/reports and any other assessments to the PIDE and institute will provide detailed methodology along with the level of efforts (LoE). It was also mutually agreed that the MoU shall be effective for three years from the date of final signature. It may be modified or extended by mutual written agreement by both organizations.

Daily Times

December 04, 2021

PIDE, FBR sign MoU for policy reform solution

The Pakistan Institute of Development Economics (PIDE) and the Federal Board of Revenue (FBR) signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) here on Friday for the provision of evidence-based policy reforms. The MoU was signed by Pro-Vice-Chancellor PIDE, Dr Durre Nayab, and DG FBR, Dr Nasir Khan on behalf of their respective organizations.

As per the MoU, both the organizations would work together for mutual benefit and develop a collaborative framework to benefit from each other's initiatives and working procedures in addition to supporting collaboration among the researchers associated with both organizations. The two government bodies agreed on jointly conducting collaborative research and short-term research activities.

The implementation mechanism of these activities would be devised mutually and would be subject to additional protocols. Both institutions would encourage their staff to strengthen cooperation in broad areas of tax policy and reforms.

Both the organizations would be jointly responsible for nominating focal persons for implementing objectives agreed under the MOU in their respective organizations and communicating with each other.

The focal persons of FBR and PIDE will meet regularly to develop a work plan with clear timelines. In addition, FBR will assign research studies/reports and any other assessments to PIDE, and Institute would provide detailed methodology along with the level of efforts (LoE). It was also mutually agreed that the MOU would be effective for three years from the date of final signature.

It may be modified or extended by mutual written agreement by both organizations. AGENCIES

INTERNATIONAL
THE NEWS

FBR, PIDE sign MoU

By APP

December 04, 2021

ISLAMABAD: The Federal Board of Revenue (FBR) and Pakistan Institute of Development Economics (PIDE) signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) on Friday for provision of evidence-based policy reforms solution, a statement said.

As per the agreement, both institutions would encourage their staff to strengthen cooperation in broad areas of tax policy and reforms.

The two government bodies aims to work together for mutual benefit and develop a collaborative framework to benefit from each others' initiatives and working procedures in addition to supporting collaboration among researchers associated with both organizations.

DG FBR Dr. Nasir Khan and pro-vice-chancellor at PIDE Dr. Durre Nayab signed the agreement on behalf of their respective organization.

They agreed on jointly conducting collaborative research and short-term research activities. The implementation mechanism of these activities would be devised mutually and would be subject to additional protocols, the MoU stated.

Both organizations would be jointly responsible for nominating focal persons for implementing objectives agreed under the MOU in their respective organizations and communicate with each other.

The focal persons of FBR and PIDE will meet regularly to develop a work plan with clear timelines. In addition, FBR will assign research studies/reports and any other assessments to PIDE and the institute would provide detailed methodology along with the level of efforts (LoE). The MOU would be effective for three years from the date of final signature and may be modified or extended by mutual written agreement by both organizations.

<https://www.thenews.com.pk/print/913905-fbr-pide-sign-mou>

PIDE, FBR ink MoU

OUR STAFF REPORT

December 04, 2021

ISLAMABAD - Pakistan Institute of Development Economics (PIDE) and the Federal Board of Revenue (FBR) on Friday signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) for the provision of evidence-based policy reforms solution.

Dr Durre Nayab, Pro-Vice-Chancellor, PIDE, and Dr Nasir Khan, DG FBR, signed the agreement. The MoU aimed to define the areas for fundamental, academic, and policy-oriented and will work together in the future for their mutual benefit to foster a collaborative framework between PIDE and FBR to benefit from each other's initiatives and working procedures and to support collaboration among the researchers associated with both organizations.

Both the government bodies agreed on jointly conducting collaborative research and short-term research activities. The implementation mechanism of these activities shall be devised mutually and will be subject to additional protocols. Both institutions will encourage their staff to strengthen cooperation in broad areas of tax policy and reforms.

According to the press release issued by the PIDE, it was mentioned in the MoU that to gain maximum benefit in a short period of time and to ensure transparency, both PIDE and FBR will be jointly responsible for nominating focal persons for implementing objectives agreed under the MoU in their respective organizations and communicate with each other. The focal persons of FBR and PIDE will meet regularly to develop a work plan with clear timelines.

In addition, FBR will assign research studies/reports and any other assessments to PIDE and Institute will provide detailed methodology along with the level of efforts (LoE). It was also mutually agreed that the MoU shall be effective for three years from the date of final signature. It may be modified or extended by mutual written agreement by both organizations.

<https://nation.com.pk/04-Dec-2021/pide-fbr-ink-mou>

BUSINESS RECORDER

Founded by M. A. Zuberi

PAKISTAN

PIDE, FBR sign MoU to provide evidence-based policy reforms solution

Recorder Report 04 Dec 2021

ISLAMABAD: Pakistan Institute of Development Economics (PIDE) and the Federal Board of Revenue (FBR), Friday, signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) for the provision of evidence-based policy reforms solution.

Dr Durre Nayab, pro vice-chancellor on behalf of the PIDE, and Dr Nasir Khan, director general (DG) on behalf of the FBR signed the agreement.

The MoU aimed to define the areas for fundamental, academic, and policy-oriented and will work together in the future for their mutual benefit to foster a collaborative framework between PIDE and the FBR to benefit from each other's initiatives and working procedures and to support collaboration among the researchers associated with both organizations. The two government bodies agreed on jointly conducting collaborative research and short-term research activities.

The implementation mechanism of these activities shall be devised mutually and will be subject to additional protocols. Both institutions will encourage their staff to strengthen cooperation in broad areas of tax policy and reforms.

A press release issued by the PIDE, it was mentioned in the MoU that to gain maximum benefit in a short period of time and to ensure transparency, both the PIDE and the FBR will be jointly responsible for nominating focal persons for implementing objectives agreed under the MoU in their respective organizations and communicate with each other.

The focal persons of the FBR and the PIDE will meet regularly to develop a work plan with clear timelines. In addition, the FBR will assign research studies/reports and any other assessments to the PIDE and institute will provide detailed methodology along with the level of efforts (LoE). It was also mutually agreed that the MoU shall be effective for three years from the date of final signature. It may be modified or extended by mutual written agreement by both organizations.

Copyright Business Recorder, 2021

<https://www.brecorder.com/news/40137715/pide-fbr-sign-mou-to-provide-evidence-based-policy-reforms-solution>

Daily Times

BUSINESS

PIDE, FBR sign MoU for policy reform solution

Agencies

DECEMBER 4, 2021

The Pakistan Institute of Development Economics (PIDE) and the Federal Board of Revenue (FBR) signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) here on Friday for the provision of evidence-based policy reforms. The MoU was signed by Pro-Vice-Chancellor PIDE, Dr Durre Nayab, and DG FBR, Dr Nasir Khan on behalf of their respective organizations.

As per the MoU, both the organizations would work together for mutual benefit and develop a collaborative framework to benefit from each other's initiatives and working procedures in addition to supporting collaboration among the researchers associated with both organizations. The two government bodies agreed on jointly conducting collaborative research and short-term research activities.

The implementation mechanism of these activities would be devised mutually and would be subject to additional protocols. Both institutions would encourage their staff to strengthen cooperation in broad areas of tax policy and reforms.

Both the organizations would be jointly responsible for nominating focal persons for implementing objectives agreed under the MOU in their respective organizations and communicating with each other.

The focal persons of FBR and PIDE will meet regularly to develop a work plan with clear timelines. In addition, FBR will assign research studies/reports and any other assessments to PIDE, and Institute would provide detailed methodology along with the level of efforts (LoE). It was also mutually agreed that the MOU would be effective for three years from the date of final signature.

It may be modified or extended by mutual written agreement by both organizations.

<https://dailytimes.com.pk/850107/pide-fbr-sign-mou-for-policy-reform-solution/>